WILSON SUCCEEDS IN AVERTING BIG RAIL STRIKE, BELIEF

7 INJURED WHEN AUTOS COLLIDE HEAD-ON NEAR SEAL BEACH

One Car Turtles, Other Plows 40 Feet Through Fence In Terrific Crash

FOLK IN ONE MACHINE ESCAPE SANS HURTS

Another Wreck Is Avoided When Driver, Blinded, Drives Into Ditch

Seven men and women and four children escaped without fatal injuries in a head-on collision of automobiles which turned one machine over and sent the other bounding through a wire fence and forty feet into a field on the Seal Beach road last night.

In the Ford car which turned over were Mr. and Mrs. H. M. King and three children and Mrs. Frank Smith and son, all of Fillmore, Cal.

The occupants of the other car, a Moore roadster, were Fred Spehger of Fullerton, Alice Hanson of Anaheim, Helen Johnson of Santa Ana and Richard Ahern of Anaheim.

Mrs. Smith had three ribs of her left side broken. Mrs. King sustained a slight scalp wound on the back of the head. Mr. King received several bad cuts about the head and body, his right eye swelling and closing and all the children suffered bruises. None of the occupants of the roadster were injured. Ahern, who was riding on the running board, was thrown from the machine when it went through the fence and a scratch on the back of his left hand was the only mark of his experience.

Both machines were badly wrecked. The King and Smith families have been stopping at Anaheim for a few days. They were driving to Seal Beach last night to witness the fire display and the feats of Boquet, the aviator. They had reached the crest of the hill just this side of Seal Beach, when they saw the lights of an approaching machine. King drove well to the right of the road, according to the statement of Mrs. King.

The driver of the roadster apparently did not see the Ford, for his car hit the Ford head-on. A witness to the accident stated that only one light was burning on the Ford, and that was an oil lamp, and so dim that it could not be seen at any great distance. There were a number of machines on the highway at the point where the accident happened and the occupants of several rushed to the assistance of those under the overturned car. Mrs. King and Mrs. Smith and three of the children were riding in the back seat, and they were all pinned under the car. None were rendered unconscious.

The injured were conveyed to the Seal Beach Pharmacy, where they were treated by Dr. James W. Beners, and later were taken to Anaheim.

Car Ditched As Glaring Lights Blind Driver

Blinding lights of a machine coming in the opposite direction caused L. D. Palmer of Orange to send his machine into a ditch by the side of the Seal Beach boulevard last night. The car turned over on its side, but none of the occupants were thrown out. With Palmer were his wife and child and Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Prent. This accident happened at the foot of the grade this side of Seal Beach, where there is a deep ditch along the side of the road. Palmer struck the ditch and the machine went over into the ditch with the car traveling at ten or twelve miles. The car turned on its side against the opposite bank and righted itself. The windshield was broken and this was about the extent of the damage sustained by the car. The accident happened after the big display at Seal Beach and the highway was crowded with cars returning to Santa Ana, Anaheim and Fullerton. With the combined efforts of eight or ten men, the car was pushed back on the boulevard, and the homeward journey of the Palmer party was resumed. Palmer is manager of the fruit exchange.

Movie Star Endangered As Auto Turns Over

The jinx is on the trail of the big marine moving picture being filmed at Balboa by the Keystone Film Company.

A substitution of directors was necessary last week because of the illness of Director Williams. C. D. Avery taking his place.

The two directors and the leading man, Chester Conklin, are today laid up as the result of an automobile accident.

POMONA GIRL, SWEEPED OFF ROCK, IS SAVED FROM DEATH IN SEA

Though washed off the rocks at Abalone Cove, near Laguna Beach, and given up as lost, Miss Emma Ball was rescued and taken safely to shore. Miss Ball seized some seaweed growing to a rock, and held fast till she was reached and dragged on to the rocks.

Miss Ball was a member of a party of about twenty persons, nearly all from Pomona. In the party were Mrs. Bessie Lambdon and her daughter of 617 West Fourth street, Santa Ana.

After lunch, a number of those in the party donned their bathing suits and went out on the rocks in search of sea urchins. They were busily engaged in the search when suddenly a huge wave, larger than any that had come since they were on the rocks, thumped against the rocks and sent a wall of water over them. Miss Ball was hurled from the rock into deep water.

At that point the rocks were high and dropped off sharply into deep water, where waves were surging and where it seemed that a swimmer, almost certain to be dashed into insensibility against the rocks, could not survive.

Fortunately, Miss Ball seized some seaweed growing on the rocks, and, clinging desperately to it, she kept her body so close to the rocks that the injuries from the pounding of incoming waves was minimized.

The horrified friends of Miss Ball for a time were helpless. She was so far down in the trough that they could not reach her from the top of the rock, and its sides offered no foothold by which they could get nearer to her. It looked as though exhaustion must soon break her hold upon the seaweed, and before their eyes she would perish.

Fighting for life, however, Miss Ball kept her head. After each wave the water was higher, and at each opportunity she shifted her hold on the seaweed, each time bringing her hands a little closer to the top of the rocks, each time a little closer to the outstretched hands of her friends.

Another wave lifted her, another time she reached upward, and the firm grip of a rescuer closed upon her hand, and she was dragged to safety.

Although exhausted, bruised and scratched and nervous from her close call with death, Miss Ball was not much worse for her experience. She is the daughter of W. D. Ball of Pomona.

HOPE TO MAKE ARRANGEMENTS FOR HUGHES TO SPEAK HERE 5:10 O'CLOCK NEXT MONDAY

If arrangements now proposed are made, Charles E. Hughes, Republican nominee for President of the United States, will speak from the platform of a Santa Fe train at Santa Ana at 5:10 o'clock Monday afternoon of next week.

Judge Hughes is to leave San Diego, where he will speak at 1:30 o'clock on Monday, at 3 o'clock for Los Angeles, where his train is due to arrive at 6:30 o'clock.

This morning County Clerk W. B. Williams, representative of this county of the Republican state central committee, telephoned to W. W. Mines of Los Angeles, vice-chairman of the state central committee, and urged that opportunity be given for people of this section to see and hear the presidential candidate, even though the talk be but for a few minutes.

Mines stated that he was satisfied that arrangements could be made. He said that the itinerary is in the hands of Mr. Rodman, who is in San Francisco. Mines, however, has had most to do with the making of the schedule and detailed arrangements for the visit of Mr. Hughes to Southern California. He said that he would gladly do what he could to have the train stop in Santa Ana long enough for Mr. Hughes to talk to the people.

Williams told Mines that there would be no less than 4000 people at the depot to meet Mr. Hughes if the plan to have him speak is sanctioned by those having the details of the trip in hand. Mines said that he would wire to San Francisco at once, and would let Williams know at the earliest possible moment as to whether or not the address would be delivered here.

L. A. SERBIAN RELIEF LETTER, CENSORED BY BRITISH, AT BERLIN

BREMEN SIGHTED OFF LONG ISLAND, REPORT

NEW LONDON, Conn., Aug. 14.—Fishers Island at 11:30 a. m. reported a large submarine, apparently of foreign registry and believed to be the Bremen, had been sighted twelve miles off Montauk Point, the eastern end of Long Island.

APPROPRIATIONS BILL BREAKS FORMER MARK

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—The importance of the $200,000,000 revenue bill, on which Senate Democrats yesterday devoted many hours of deliberation in caucus, is being impressed upon leaders by the fact that appropriations of the session now nearing completion have broken all records.

With passage this week of the $50,000,000 ship purchase bill and probable approval by the House of the Senate's gigantic naval bill, the appropriations of the sixty-fourth Congress will have exceeded the previous high record by at least a half billion dollars.

While exact figures cannot be computed until the gavel has fallen on the last supply bill of the session, the aggregate appropriation by Congress for all purposes probably will approximate $1,700,000,000, as against $1,114,000,000 for the sixty-third Congress.

BABY PLAGUE EASED BY N. Y. COOL WAVE

NEW YORK, Aug. 14.—This was the coldest August 14th in the weather bureau's history during forty-six years. At 6 a. m. the temperature was 56.

With the cold wave the infantile paralysis epidemic seemed to lift. The fewest new cases and deaths in several weeks were recorded.

CONGRESS CHIEFS SAY WEEK TO BE BIGGEST OF PRESENT SESSION

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—Congressional leaders are agreed that this week will be the biggest legislative week of this session. Confident predictions were made that the navy, child labor, ship purchase and workmen's compensation bills would become law. All these bills have plenty of support.

SHOOTS WIFE, WOUNDS DAUGHTER AND SELF

WATTS, Cal., Aug. 14.—Preferring to see his wife and family dead than to continue to live apart from them, after a recent family estrangement, Sebastian Richthammer, a janitor, yesterday killed his wife, seriously wounded his 9-year-old daughter and then fatally wounded himself. The triple tragedy was enacted in and near the Richthammer cottage on Pearl street, Watts. The shooting was witnessed by Richthammer's young son, Adolf, and by August Frederick, the 70-year-old father of the slain woman. The shooting of the little girl was especially pathetic. When her mother was slain in the house the child ran screaming into the street. Richthammer followed her yelling, fired and the child fell. Then he turned the revolver upon himself.

WHEAT PRICES TUMBLE ON CHICAGO MARKET

CHICAGO, Aug. 14.—Wheat prices tumbled downward as the grain markets closed today. September wheat sold at 4 3/4 lower and May at 3 3/4. December sold at 3/4 of a cent lower.

9 SLAIN, 17 HURT AS TORNADO IN ARKANSAS WRECKS 12 BUILDINGS

MEMPHIS, Aug. 14.—Five persons were killed and seventeen injured, four fatally, when a tornado swept Eastern Arkansas last night, it became known today. The hurricane blew down twelve buildings at Edmundson, Arkansas.

REPRESENTATIVES of the great organizations of railroad employees of the whole country met in the Engineering Building, New York City, with representatives of the railroad officials to listen to the announcement of the vote of the individual members on the question of a strike. The vote, which has been taken by mail during the past few months, was overwhelmingly in favor of a strike.

Plans to Ease Possible Gotham Food Crisis Laid

NEW YORK, Aug. 14.—How five million people living in Greater New York will be fed in the event of a railroad strike is the problem being tackled today by officials.

Joseph J. Hartigan, secretary of Mayor Mitchell's committee on Food Supplies has recommended to Acting Mayor Frank L. Dowling that action be taken by the city government to prepare against any stoppage of the transfer of foodstuffs.

Hartigan proposed that a survey be made of all sources of food supplies which could be commandeered if a strike should be declared.

With the city in the grip of infantile paralysis the city authorities are trying to determine if two and a quarter million quarts of milk which the city consumes daily could be brought into the city in case of a strike. Packers estimated that New York's supply of meat would last eight days if a strike is called.

The presence of half a million tourists is presenting one problem.

As New York produces practically no foodstuffs, a strike which would cut off the food supply would result in appalling conditions for a short time, authorities said.

Western Roads Prepared to Use Strike Breakers

CHICAGO, Aug. 14.—Some western railroads are so well prepared for a strike that they have applications from a sufficient number of operatives to operate trains in the event of a walk out by the Brotherhoods, according to W. B. Storey, head of the operating department of the Santa Fe, today.

A railway strike would throw a half million men out of work here, according to conservative estimates. Chicago is the terminus of thirty-nine railroads with a total mileage of nearly 100,000 miles.

He ridiculed the idea that Southern California would be starving as a result of being cut off. He said:

"Even if no trains are running at all, motor trucks with California's good roads will be able to keep up supplies."

ESPEE BELIEVES ITS TRAINS WILL KEEP RUNNING

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 14.—If the railroad trainmen decide to refuse arbitration of the strike Southern Pacific officials believe that their road will be able to handle all passenger trains with little difficulty, according to a statement by the railroad's publicity department today.

Recently officers of the road wrote to all their employees asking if they would remain at work should the brotherhood strike. While announcing no poll of the answers received, officials said that the results were gratifying.

MAN HELD IN BOMBING CASE WAS SOCIALIST CANDIDATE IN 1910

MARY PICKFORD SETS UP OWN FILM STUDIO

NEW YORK, Aug. 14.—Mary Pickford has at last gone into business for herself. The Famous Players Film Corporation has admitted that the little film star was no longer connected with it, and had in fact organized her own company to be known as the Mary Pickford Film Corporation.

When Miss Pickford was asked about the matter she confirmed the announcement regarding her own company and said she had already started work on a picture play in her "very own studio" in West Fifty-second street.

"It's been my little dream for a long time to manage personally my own pictures," she said. "I think I have learned a good deal about pictures in my work before the camera, and that is just why I want to use this knowledge to the best advantage in guiding my own company, which will now produce all of the plays in which I am to appear."

BROKERS QUIZZED IN WHEAT PRICE PROBE

CHICAGO, Aug. 14.—Big brokers and traders in wheat today are being questioned by a United States district attorney in the federal investigation of wheat prices.

TEUTONS CRUSH RUSS DRIVE ON WHOLE FRONT

BERLIN, Aug. 14.—The repulse of Russian attacks on practically the whole front was today officially announced by both the Austrian and German War offices. The Russians vainly attacked northeast of Stanislaw, suffering heavy losses. On the front of General Hindenburg, General Boehn von Ermoli repulsed repeated Russian thrusts.

BERLIN, Aug. 14.—The British have been driven from a 700-yard front west of Pozieres, it was today officially announced.

PETROGRAD, Aug. 14.—The last formidable Austro-German barrier to Lemberg has been broken, and the Teutons are in general retreat along a front of ninety miles in the direction of the Galician capital, it was announced here today.

Compelled to retire from their strong Stripa river positions by the threat that his armies would be surrounded and captured, General Von Bothmer is falling steadily back on the Szlota river.

On the whole line the Russian moving machine is reaping a bloody harvest. On the front east and northeast of Lemberg alone it is estimated that the Austro-Germans lost 75,000 men, or half of their effectives. This fact alone, it is believed, necessitates a continued retreat before the Russians.

The war office today announced that the Russian forces continued their advance westward in the region of the Stripa and that another force, moving west from the river Koropetz, had reached a point north of the Dneister before Mariopol, whose capture by cavalry was announced.

At 6 a. m. Sunday the Austro-Germans attacked the Russians in the Kovol region. The fighting is severe in the region of Stobychow, west of the Stokhod.

Along the Sereth river retreating enemy forces are checking the Russian advance from behind fortified positions.

LATINS WIN NEW LINES SOUTH OF GORIZT

ROME, Aug. 14.—General Cadorna's forces have penetrated another strong line of Austrian trenches east of Nadlogem, south of Goritz, it was today officially announced.

FRENCH SEIZE TRENCHES SOUTH OF SOMME

PARIS, Aug. 14.—The French, following up their Somme successes, advanced south of the river during the night it was today announced. They captured trenches between Fer and the road to Denaiscourt, widening their positions.

HOTEL COLLAPSED LINCOLN, NEB., AUG. 14.—Five persons were injured, two seriously and one probably fatally, when the Capitol Hotel of this city collapsed about 3:30 o'clock Saturday morning.

CONFERENCE OF PRESIDENT WITH TRAINMEN WILL BRING PEACE SETTLEMENT

Envoys of Employees Are Optimistic Following This Morning's Meeting

GROUND IS YIELDED BY BOTH SIDES, VIEW

No Evidence of Discouragement After Close of Opening Session

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—The president issued the following statement: "I met both sides and they have gone over the case with the utmost frankness. I shall not be able to judge until tomorrow whether we found a feasible basis for settlement."

Every evidence of confidence was shown by administration officials that the railroad strike would be averted this afternoon as the railroad managers went into conference with President Wilson.

President Wilson today took the first step in his effort to prevent the threatened tie-up of the country's railroads.

"There will be no strike," said one high government official, but, like others displaying the same optimism, he could not offer any substantiation of his belief.

Cheerfulness was shown by the Brotherhood representatives following the morning conference.

The president was generally optimistic.

The opinion is held that the employers' representatives displayed a willingness to the president to have the strike question arbitrated.

The railroad managers, twenty in number, arrived at the White House at 2:55. None would comment.

The president followed the same procedure with the railroad men as he did with the employees.

Elisha Lee was the spokesman for the group. Judge Chambers introduced the managers to the president, and upon leaving the White House, said:

"The ice appears to be melting a little. I feel easier about the situation than when I came down this morning. I am very optimistic that the president will be able to accomplish something. It is unbelievable to me that there will be a strike."

The initial move on the part of the chief executive ended at noon when representatives of the employees left the White House smiling, after having been in conference with the President for an hour and a half.

"All negotiations are in the President's hands," said A. B. Garretson, spokesman for the employees. He refused to discuss the situation.

Warren Stone, who represented the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, said:

"I am optimistic."

W. P. Lee of the Order of Railway Trainmen added:

"It looks very good."

An apparently well authenticated report that preceded the conclusion of the morning conference was that the employees would agree to arbitration of the case provided that the railroads agreed to withdraw their counter-proposals and that the railway managers had agreed. The counter-proposals were that any discussion should include, besides the wage increase, readjustment of rules on which wages are now based. The railroad managers contended that it is essential that the whole matter be taken up since it absolutely would be unfair to have the old rules and regulations govern the proposed new wage basis.

There was no indication that the men felt discouraged as a result of the conference.

WOMAN ASKS $20,000 BALM FOR BEAR'S HUG

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 14.—Hugging is a form of diversion which the average woman does not look upon with any amount of apprehension, but when the hugger happens to be a full-grown bear the recipient of the hug is entitled to monetary compensation for any damages to her person or nervous system, is the belief of Mrs. Ida B. Parker, living at a fashionable hotel in Geary street. She asks $20,342.50 damages against Gus Temps, proprietor of a transfer company, who she says owns a "large, full-grown, ferocious" bear. Mrs. Parker declares that on July 31 last the bear suddenly walked out and embraced her, her lower limbs being lacerated and her face badly clawed.

BRIDGETON, N. J.—"I cannot speak too highly of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for inflammation and other weaknesses. I was very irregular and would have terrible pains so that I could hardly take a step. Sometimes I would be so miserable that I could not sweep a room. I doctored part of the time but felt no change. I later took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and felt a change for the better after the second day. I took it until I was in a good healthy condition. Two of the planes to be made in Los Angeles are of the very latest design for reconnaissance work, and, according to L. D. Bell, superintendent of the Martin Company, they will surpass any similar type of plane used by the warring armies in Europe. They are for mountain work and are especially fitted for air conditions in Mexico.

According to Superintendent Bell, the factory is working night and day and has 150 employed. He expects to complete the entire order within four weeks.

SAYS JOHN D. MINE
UNION NOT SUCCESS

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Aug. 14.—Delegates from the Rockefeller mines in Colorado were prominent at the opening of the annual convention of the state federation of labor here today.

The miners of the Colorado Fuel and Iron (Rockefeller's) company are flocking back to the United Mine Workers Union.

Recent open organization meetings in the Colorado coal fields have been attended by representatives of the Rockefeller company as well as the miners whose union affiliations were condemned in the historic strike of 1913-14.

"There is talk of a strike," said President McClellan of the state federation today. "The men are not threatened with discharge for joining the United Miners. The C. F. & I. apparently is making good on its promise not to discriminate against union men."

"But the fact that the men in Mr. Rockefeller's mines are again joining the union means that the company's 'industrial representation plan' isn't all that the men desire. The men feel that their representatives in 'Rockefeller's union' are selected rather than elected. The miners want an organization of their own, supported by themselves."

"Mr. Rockefeller's industrial representation plan is paternalistic. The miners feel they are being spied upon. Their representatives in the Rockefeller union are selected at small meetings which only a small proportion of the miners attend."

McClellan stated that the Rockefeller company had instituted great improvements in the way of Y. M. C. A. moving picture shows and "social service."

"But the wages of the coal miners have not been increased. They are still being paid about 55 cents per ton and the demand during the great strike was a 10 per cent increase on this amount."

"One good thing—the saloons in the Rockefeller camps have been abolished under the state prohibition law."

A feature of the convention today was the strict enforcement of the rule that every delegate must wear at least five articles of clothing with the union label.

BOY SAVES SISTER
FROM FREIGHT TRAIN

MITCHELL.—Scrambling out of the pond adjoining the local Milwaukee switching yards, Otto Simpson, a Mitchell youngster, snatched his little sister off a railroad track in time to save her life. While her brother was in swimming, the little girl was amusing herself throwing pebbles at him from the track. The boy happened to look up and saw a long freight train coming up the track on which his sister was playing. She did not heed him when he called in alarm, and he just managed to reach her and jump into the water with her when the engine passed the spot.

TELLS EVOLUTION OF LOCOMOTIVE
HEADLIGHT

SAN FRANCISCO.—The evolution of the locomotive headlight has its hopes in the sun. The light now used on the locomotives of the Southern Pacific has the marvelous brilliancy of 1,040,000 beam candlepower. And all this light proceeds from a little incandescent coil no bigger than a bird seed.

The smallness of the coil is the marvel and the secret of the enormous power of the light beam. To hear A. H. Babcock, electrical engineer of the railroad company, explain just how such a tiny speck of brightness is multiplied and magnified until it has power to render the track ahead of the train for a distance of almost a mile as light as day is as thrilling as listening to a desert travelogue.

A score of years ago kerosene lamps were used for headlights; then came the acetylene gas lamps; after that the electric incandescent lamp and the arc lamp.

Take away the reflector and the lamp now used in the Southern Pacific headlights compares with the ordinary automobile lamp as follows: Each are six-volt lamps. The auto lamp is a 20-watt lamp, while the locomotive lamp is 108-watt. The automobile lamp is spherical and is two inches in diameter. The locomotive lamp is also spherical and is only one and one-half inches larger; that is, three and one-half inches in diameter. The automobile has a six or eight-inch reflector; the headlight on the locomotive has an 18-inch reflector.

Hang the locomotive headlight lamp up in a room without its reflector and it would have 104 candlepower. No more than that.

Now place it in the exact focus of its 18-inch reflector and instantly it is multiplied 10,000 times. This gives the beam which is sent forth across the rails a candlepower of 1,040,000.

Herein a strange scientific fact is revealed. If the point of light, that is, the tiny incandescent coil, is too large, the rays of reflection and magnification are disturbed and the resultant beam is diminished in power.

This is why Babcock turned down one day the arc lamps. He said the arc of light travels around its center so that only intermittently is there a full-power beam. He wanted the electrical manufacturers to make him a coil that would take up the smallest possible space, and finally they produced one which is a sort of tiny double spiral. One time he was called before a certain tribunal to explain how his headlight, which has such a small intrinsic power, could be changed into a headlight as brilliant as he claimed. Babcock proved this to the judges the same way that a professor demonstrates a problem in geometry to his class.

"Why, then, do not others use this?" the judges demanded. "Why is it that your company is the only one in the country that uses this small coil?"

"Modesty prevents me from replying," answered Babcock.

Only the other day Babcock invented a little nickel cap to hook over the top of the spherical headlight globe. It would appear to a layman that this would intercept the light and make the beam dim. Instead it serves in a remarkable way to still further increase the lamp's power and also, and what is considered immensely important, it keeps the glare out of the eyes of engineers who are waiting on sidetracks and thus enables them easily to note numbers on the passing engine; also it keeps back from the driving engineer's eyes the glare of his own headlight on a bank of fog.

Still another remarkable thing, Babcock says that now the company is filling these little spherical lamps with neon, which is a gas.

SAYS IT PAYS STATE
TO HAVE NORMAL GRADS
TEACH 3 YRS. AND WED

SACRAMENTO.—Does it pay to spend state money maintaining normal schools to train teachers for service in the California schools only to have the girl graduates snatched off by Dan Cupid after teaching three years?

Statistics compiled today show that the average teaching life of the normal school girl graduate is three years. And a big majority of the graduates are girls. Answering the question, "Does it pay?" State School Superintendent Edward Hyatt says "Yes."

Continuing, he asserts: "Some people might complain and criticize the state for the apparent waste of time and money in specially training these young women to teach, and then have them quit in three years. But I do not find anything to criticize or carp at in this. What better training can you want for the future mothers of the race than teaching for two or three years?"

Hyatt just returned from the normal school graduating exercises at San Jose. Of the 314 graduates there were not more than sixty men.

"There were six other normal schools in the state sending out teachers at the same time," Hyatt says, "and the total was at least 2000. It would seem impossible for the state to absorb so many new teachers annually. But that it is able to absorb them is due to this fact that the average teaching life of these normal school girls is not more than three years. Most of them are young and pretty and they are married inside of three years."

Hyatt also made note of the interesting fact that fifty of the 137 graduates of the San Jose high schools this year were Italians. "That shows how the fruit lands of that garden spot of the state are passing into the hands of the industrious Italian orchardists," the state superintendent comments.

WILCOX CLAIMS 25 STATES FOR G. O. P. LEADER

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—In his first statement on the political situation throughout the country, William R. Wilcox, manager of Mr. Hughes' campaign, last night claimed 300 electoral votes for his candidate. In addition, Mr. Wilcox said the total probably would amount to 325, while only 266 are needed to elect.

The states which are claimed as certain for Hughes and Fairbanks are:

California, 11; Connecticut, 7; Idaho, 4; Illinois, 20; Iowa, 13; Kansas, 10; Maine, 6; Massachusetts, 18; Michigan, 15; Minnesota, 12; Montana, 4; New Jersey, 14; New Hampshire, 4; New York, 45; North Dakota, 5; Ohio, 24; Oregon, 5; Pennsylvania, 38; Rhode Island, 5; South Dakota, 5; Utah, 4; Vermont, 4; Washington, 7; West Virginia, 8; Delaware, 3; total, 300.

"Doubtful" Column
States which are regarded as doubtful at this time by the Republican leaders, but in which they will do a great deal of work with the expectation of carrying a number of them, are:

Arizona, 3; Colorado, 6; Kentucky, 13; Maryland, 8; Missouri, 13; Nebraska, 8; New Mexico, 3; Oklahoma, 10; Indiana, 15; Wisconsin, 13; Wyoming, 3.

"These eleven states," said Mr. Wilcox, "have a total of 100 votes, and while none of them has been placed as reasonably certain, several of them might well have been so placed. At any rate I feel that a guess of twenty-five votes out of the 100, to say the least, conservative, and, unless I prove to be a very poor guesser, Hughes and Fairbanks will poll upward of 325 out of the total of 531 electoral votes in November next."

The Wilcox statement indicates that Republican leaders are still looking back to the enormous majority of Thompson over Sweitzer in the Chicago mayoralty election last year as indicative of conditions in Illinois. With respect to the situation there Mr. Wilcox said:

"Wilson carried Illinois in 1912 and yet received 225,053 votes less than the combined Taft and Roosevelt vote. In 1914 Senator Sherman defeated Sullivan for the Senate and the combined Republican and Progressive vote exceeded the Democratic vote by over 220,000. These figures, the last election in Chicago for mayor and the past history of this staunch Republican state justified me at least in the belief that I have made no mistake in placing Illinois in the list of sure ones."

ORANGE HIGH SCHOOL HEAD TRADES RANCHES

ANAHEIM, Aug. 12.—A real estate deal involving $26,000 has been closed. Delbert Brunton, principal of the high school at Orange, comes into possession of twenty acres a half-mile west of Norwalk, having traded his 7.65 acre tract on East Chapman avenue to Hartley Daniel for it. The 7.65 acre tract here is valued at $14,000 and is set out to Valencias. The property at Norwalk is set out to sugar beets, the value of the land being set at $12,000.

Mr. Daniels, who is living at Baldwin Park, expects to erect a residence on his property here and move his chicken ranch from Baldwin Park here. He will make his home here.

SUPERB APPLES

FULLERTON, Aug. 11.—Washington and Oregon have nothing on Orange county when it comes to growing apples. DEM. PARTY BAR TO PROGRESS, SAYS HUGHES

BUTTE, Mont., Aug. 14.—Charles E. Hughes, addressing an audience in the ball park here late Saturday, reviewed his declaration of convictions and continued his attack on the administration for its foreign and Mexican policy, its appointments and its tariff views.

"The Democratic party," the nominee said, "has always been a party of opposition to progress. There has not been a great national movement in response to a national demand that has not had to run over the prostrate form of the Democratic party."

The nominee scored the administration for what he called failure to carry out its party platform, notably the plank in the 1912 platform declaring for the maintenance of American rights abroad.

"This administration in the first instance organized its State Department," Mr. Hughes said, "so as to reduce its potency 25 per cent in the eyes of the world."

Mr. Hughes left here at 7:35 p. m. for Spokane, where he spent yesterday resting. Reviewing the first week of his campaign the nominee issued a statement saying that he was much gratified by the reception given him and anticipated strong support in the northwest. The hoarseness which bothered him a day or two had left him and he said he felt better at present than at any time before his nomination.

DEMOCRATS SWITCHING TO G. O. P. SIDE

POMONA, Aug. 14.—Assemblyman L. L. Lostutter, who is the regular Republican candidate for Congress in this district, says that it surprises him to note the number of Democrats who admit that they are going to support Hughes for President this fall.

"The Democrats know for an absolute certainty that low tariff would have put the citrus industry in the hole again this year if it hadn't been that there was a demand larger than the supply of lemons and oranges," says he.

HUGHES ENTERS STATE EARLY FRIDAY

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 14.—Charles Evans Hughes will enter California from the north on his western speaking tour early next Friday and will speak here the same night. Saturday night he will leave for Los Angeles, where he will speak Monday night.

In addition to the gatherings here and in Los Angeles Hughes will make several other addresses while in California. After crossing the Oregon line Friday he will deliver platform speeches from the train at Woodland, Dixon, Suisun and Benicia. Friday afternoon he will address the women of San Francisco and Saturday he will speak at a mass meeting in Oakland at a conference of Republican country newspaper editors here. Monday afternoon he will address a mass meeting in San Diego.

Immediately following the Los Angeles meeting Hughes will leave for Reno, Nev., over the valley lines of the Southern Pacific. Speeches may be made at valley points as he passes through. Following Reno he will go to Ogden and Salt Lake, Utah, and then East.

ANAHEIM ORDERING STREET PAVEMENT

ANAHEIM, Aug. 12.—Plans and specifications for the paving of South Philadelphia street were adopted Thursday evening by the city council, and a resolution ordering the work was approved. This improvement will complete the paving of this popular residence street and will be another link in the paved streets planned for Anaheim in the near future. A resolution of intention for the paving of the alley south of Center street was also adopted.

Realizing the increase in the south part of town the Public Improvement committee was instructed to look into the extension of the water mains to that part of town and to enlarge some of the mains now installed.

The Board of Equalization will meet on August 14 at 10 o'clock.

Realizing the solicitors for jitney business are getting too diligent to gain trade, the city attorney was instructed to draw up an ordinance so that these solicitors will be kept within bounds and not bother visitors to Anaheim. The question of bonds by the jitney drivers was also referred to the city attorney for action.

W. E. Baxter, representing a vacuum sweeper, addressed the board on the purchase of his machine. No action was taken.

S. A. LEADS MANY OTHER CITIES IN BUILDING

Figures compiled by the Southwest Contractor, Los Angeles, show that, with a total of $29,587 building permits issued during the month of July, this year, as against $14,946 in 1915, Santa Ana leads the cities of South Pasadena, Alhambra, Monrovia, Eagle Rock, Glendale, Tropic, Santa Monica, Huntington Park, Pomona, Riverside, San Bernardino, Ontario, Redlands and Venice in amount of valuations of new buildings. Statistics from twenty cities were secured. In addition to the foregoing cities figures are quoted from San Diego, Pasadena, Long Beach, Santa Barbara and Tucson, Ariz., the latter five being the only ones ahead of Santa Ana in amounts of building permits issued.

EXPERTS PROBE VALUE OF FARM MACHINERY

CEDAR RAPIDS, Ia., Aug. 14.—Experts from Iowa State College at Ames at the state tractor demonstration here today are trying to find the value of the different makes of machines exhibited for the farmers. They are testing for fuel cost and the amount of power required to operate plows and other farm machinery.

Experts say it is as necessary to measure the ability of new farm machinery as it is to measure the amount of food required by a cow and the amount of milk she produces.

Farmers and implement men from all over the middle west are attending the tractor demonstration, which will continue for four days.

GIRL DRIVER'S PLUCK SAVES FIVE IN AUTO

HARTFORD CITY, Ind.—The pluck of Miss Gretchen Michaels, sticking to the wheel of an automobile on the tracks of the Pennsylvania lines as a passenger train approached, saved the lives of five occupants of the machine. She drove the car into a side ditch just as the pilot of the engine struck the rear wheel.

In driving toward the station Miss Michaels, who was a stranger here, mistook the space between the two tracks for a street, and turned into it. Two wheels of the big machine were across the south-bound track when the whistle of the passenger train warned the driver of her danger and she drove into the ditch. The machine was upset when the engine struck it, but none of the occupants were injured.

GIVEN PERMIT FOR GAS LINE INTO POMONA

Authority has been granted by the State Railroad Commission to the Southern Counties Gas Company of California to construct a fourteen-mile eight-inch natural gas transmission line from Brea to the gas company's plant at Pomona. The application for authority shows that the line will commence at the Brea Canyon Oil Company's pumping station at Brea, extend along the Brea Canyon road to San Bernardino boulevard near Lemon, and thence along that boulevard to the Pomona plant.

The commission also has authorized the Southern Counties Gas Company to exercise the rights of a franchise granted it by Orange county for the construction of additions and betterments to its system.

U. S. WAR VETS HOLD PREPAREDNESS CONFAB

CHOCAGO, Aug. 14.—Uncle Sam's sons of empire met here today to talk of the time when they carried the flag into China, the Philippines, Cuba, Vera Cruz and the "coral reefs and desert sands" where the United States army, navy or marine corps has fought in the past two decades. Several thousand of them, members of the Veterans of the Foreign Wars of the United States are attending the seventeenth annual encampment of the national organization. They came prepared to talk preparedness.

Grand Commander Gus E. Hartung of Denver, and Adjutant General Col. R. G. Woodside of Pittsburgh, were early arrivals. Delegates are here from the Philippines and Canal Zone posts.

Delegates displayed with pride their campaign badges. This badge, issued by Congress to men who saw active service in the Philippines, Haiti, Santo Domingo or Cuba, was the official badge of the encampment.

The favorite campaign discussed today was that of General Winfield Scott, made from Vera Cruz to Mexico City in 1846. The massacre of the Alamo was re-enacted, the sinking of the Maine pictured anew and the reconquest of Cuba and the Nicaraguan campaign were fought over again by men who took part in many of these famous events.

The opening session was called to order shortly after noon today. A smoker will be held this evening. The two hundred delegates of the Ladies' Auxiliary will hold their initial meeting tonight.

Resolutions favoring enactment of the Key pension bill, already passed by the lower house of Congress, were to be adopted at this afternoon's session.

Memorial services to commemorate the memory and history of the day will be conducted on the afternoon of the sixteenth. The convention will end Thursday.

THE REAL ISSUE

Do you want a business man, with the traditional "Big Business" point of view,—or a statesman, with an unequalled record of legislative performance, writing into the laws of a State, once hopelessly corporation dominated, humanitarian acts which have made it the most progressive governmentally in the Union?

That is the United States Senatorial issue in California, clearly defined, now that Judge Walter Bordwell has, in the words of Governor Johnson, been "bullied by the bosses" into quitting the race for the toga; and it rests with the people of the State to decide which type of man they want at Washington. The Governor himself put the issue in crisp language at San Luis Obispo, when he said:

"One of my opponents is a business man,—a successful, eminently respectable business man.

"I say naught in personal criticism, but it would seem to me that there are enough representative business men in the United States Senate.

"Would that that distinguished body could have two eyes instead of one and could look at the humanity of the nation as well as at its property and business interests.

"Business, of course, we must always protect and conserve, but the government should recognize its first obligation,—its duty to its men, women and children.

"It is my laudable ambition to seek to impress on the laws of the nation some of the things which we have done to achieve a social square deal in California."

SLICE OF BREAD, 10c

The cold iron hand of greed has been laid on the bread of the masses. Quickly seizing the reports of a wheat "shortage," gamblers on 'change have been steadily forcing up the price of the staple cereal.

The master bakers, alarmed, propose the 10-cent loaf—which, despite all explanations to the contrary, is bound to mean less bread for more money to the people.

But the master bakers have focused attention on one of the vital weaknesses of our government, which is its non-interference and non-intervention in behalf of the people.

Under our system, if those who hold the wheat can get more for it by selling it in the foreign markets, they sell in those markets, irrespective of the consequences to the people of the United States.

The master bakers have asked Congress to declare an embargo on wheat. But Congress will not act.

The government of the United States has not yet been made to realize that protection of the masses is, or ought to be, one of the first objects of government.

Uncle Sam will go right on talking about prosperity and quoting his export figures.

Nor would an embargo, of its own unsupported effect, insure cheaper bread. It would not insure internal regulation of prices.

But an embargo and price regulation at home would insure the people's interests.

This great democracy of ours has yet to learn that government is something more than a clearing-house and underwriting agency for trade; it has yet to learn that all the interests inimical to the peace and happiness of American men, women and children are not in foreign lands.—Stockton Record.

AFRAID OF HAPPINESS

Remember O. Henry's neuresthenic? The one who, just as soon as he began to feel normally content with the world said to himself: "This won't do. I'm a sick man. What right have I to be happy?" Well, be assured O. Henry took that character from real life.

There's the business man who pines in the midst of unparalleled prosperity to indulge fear of a slump when the war ends. There's the mother who, with her children rosy-cheeked and chubby-limbed, shudders at the colds they are sure to take next winter. There's the man with a good job who can't shake off the thought that a younger chap will push him out ten years hence.

The fear of unhappiness is no more widespread than the fear of happiness! Thousands and thousands of well-fed, well-clothed, well-housed folk, fortunate in their work and in their friends, seem to regard their well-being as sort of a charm that will be broken if for but a moment they give way to rejoicing. They are afraid to be happy.

Now, you can point out an elevator shaft and say to a man, "Don't fall down that shaft." But obviously it isn't so easy to say don't to a thought, a habit of mind. Resolving not to think a certain thought may serve only to fix that thought all the deeper in the mind. And so, if you would erase fear thoughts from your mind, you must reject the "don't" resolution and adopt the "do." You must entertain those positive thoughts which, of themselves, contradict your fears. You must resolve to have confidence in the future. You must resolve to have faith, without which all the good fortune in the world cannot make you happy. The deluge may indeed descend. If faith has made you brave you will build yourself an ark. But if, on the other hand, if lack of faith has made you a coward even a ready-built ark won't help you. In the fear that it will sink you will refuse to board it.

Afraid of happiness? Faith, active, positive belief that the good of the present is prophet to the good of the future, alone can rid you of that fear.—Stockton Record.

POOR ARGUMENT

What a miserably poor argument in favor of a candidate for United States Senator it is to say—He is a Republican, or a Democrat, or a Progressive!

And, by the same token, how puerile and futile is the argument against a candidate for United States Senator to shriek—"He is not a Republican!" Or, for that matter, to cry out against him merely on partisan grounds of any kind or degree.

Governor Johnson's non-partisan election to the United States Senate will put a final quietus to political politics in California.

With Malice Toward None

By Henry James
WITH MALICE—AUG. 14—Athletics
Somebody asks as to the beginning of athletics.

Exact date unknown, but Cain was the first club swinger.

Something in a Name
When C. Hell was rejected by the recruiting officer he could express his feeling nicely by pronouncing his own name.

Still, it is not pleasing not to be able to register at a hotel without making oath, concerning it.

Burglary for Fun
A wealthy man confessing to the crime of burglary said that he had not committed it for financial gain.

There went the only possible excuse a man could have for burglary. Send him up!

No Sustenance
Villistas ask for amnesty, but think the scheme a cheat.

When they receive it and then find it isn't good to eat.

Darwin Vindicated
Some writers blame the war upon certain German philosophers.

Anyway, this lets Darwin out.

From careful reading of all the information available concerning the prospects of peace, the information is gathered that each side is ready to accept the surrender of the other.

Adjustment of this trifling difficulty is now engaging the energies of several million men.

Comparative Safety
The other day a man riding a bucking horse was bucked off at the instant the cowcatcher of a moving locomotive was available for him to alight upon.

While approaching a locomotive face to face is no joke, there are persons who have enjoyed a stay in the saddle who believe the latter experiment still farther removed from the realm of jest.

A Neglected Coast
There is not a battleship on the Pacific coast and it is a considerable coast.

Secretary of the Los Angeles Honorary Club at that.

Weariness
Drink hot milk when tired, says a doctor.

Oh, people do not get so tired as that.

Rise in Realty
When the Danes agreed fourteen years ago to sell their islands they thought $5,000,000 enough for them. Now they get $25,000,000 and don't seem to be very eager.

Somebody must have put in a trolley and boomed an addition, or perhaps they have a municipal band over there.

A Foot Note
In recording a local calamity the brunt of which was borne by a respected citizen, a Philadelphia paper mentions that the gentleman suffered among other things the decapitation of his foot.

Surely some artist will be inspired to make a bust of a foot that has had so notable an experience.

THEY ARE CERTAINLY HAVING A PRETTY HARD TIME OF IT

(From Hiram W. Johnson for United States Senator Headquarters)
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 8.—In their wild scurry to make a presentable front to the people of the state, so that they may defeat Governor Hiram W. Johnson for the Republican nomination for United States Senator, the embattled Old Guard has committed a succession of ridiculous stupides.

Following Charles Evans Hughes, for one thing, proves a sort of blind man's buff for those darkened souls who have not been used to such leadership and cannot adapt themselves to that kind of step.

Take that sadly miscalculated editorial in the first edition of M. H. de Young's "Chronicle" the other day, August 2,—the day after Justice Hughes twice declared himself as favoring an amendment to the Federal constitution, granting suffrage to women.

The editorial in question dealt with Hughes' letter of acceptance and the issues he had raised. Then, blundering full into the third rail, de Young made this declaration (in the first edition, remember, before the telegraphed news told what the Republican nominee had said on the same subject):

"Equal suffrage is not a Federal issue. As a state issue Governor Hughes favors granting suffrage to women at the earliest possible day."

Then everybody got busy in the "Chronicle" editorial rooms whittling off those last two sentences from the editorial before the next edition. Just one of those unfortunate blunders, quite likely to happen when a reactionary mind tries to be spokesman for a progressive mind.

Then there was that curious boast of Francis V. Keessling, the young man who, as chairman of the Republican State Central Committee and as a member of the Republican delegation from this state to the national Republican convention, might be expected to remember something about what took place at Chicago before Justice Hughes was nominated. In one of Keessling's proclamations against Hiram Johnson's candidacy, he makes this astonishing declaration:

"The Governor fails to tell the people of California that those whom he has assailed as 'interest-serving,' as 'machine-guided' and as 'corporation-fidels' citizens of this state, went to the Republican convention and did their duty by the party and by the people by leading the landslide which gave to the party and the nation the nomination of Charles Evans Hughes."

The figures, which have evidently escaped Keessling's memory, show that, on the first ballot at Chicago, Hughes received but 9 of the California delegation's votes; Sherman, 2; Burton, 1; Weeks, 3; Fairbanks, 3; and Root, 8. California wasn't "leading" any pronounced Hughes "landslide" on the second ballot, either, for it stood 11 for Hughes, 1 for Sherman, 1 for Fairbanks, and 12 for Root. The third ballot was a "landslide" all right enough, but California didn't exactly "lead." She just occupied a seat on the band wagon.

Nobody's finding fault with Keessling for throwing his hat in the air for Hughes. It's quite the proper thing to do. But why take credit for "leading the landslide?"

Some such inability to get his facts ing a clean shirt was shot at the border—not of the garment—the other day.

There will be scant pity for him. He must have just stolen the shirt.

Protecting the Girls
A Chicago manufacturer provides his girl employees with a patent medicine with which to combat the effects of the bad air in his establishment. The air causes the headache, which the dope cures. More bad air, more headache, more dope, an endless procession headed for the cemetery.

Why not open the windows? This would let fresh air in and afford a desirable chance to throw the dope out.

Very Simple
Germany says she desires Poland to be free.

It is the desire that Poland be free that is implanting in the countenance of British statesmen the lines of caring care.

Without question Poland itself desires to be free, and all neutral nations would be glad to see it free.

Happy thought: Why not free Poland and let everybody be happy?

PROTESTS ON FREIGHT RATE INCREASE HEARD BY INTERSTATE BOARD

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—The Suspension Board of the Interstate Commerce Commission today heard reports from 854 transcontinental shippers in a petition for a suspension of a proposed increase of Coast freight rates.

Arguments are over the reasonableness of proposed increased freight rates from the Atlantic seaboard to the intermountain section and from Pacific Coast points east. Some of the increases are as high as 100 per cent and, unless suspended by the commission, will go into effect September 1.

BEACH FRIENDS VISIT

Miss Lola Bullock of South Birch Street Hostess Saturday Evening

A merry party of Long Beach people drove over to this city last Saturday evening and were pleasantly entertained at the home of Miss Lola Bullock on South Birch street. The home was prettily decorated with large bouquets of roses.

The night was an ideal one and the moonlight drive was not the least pleasant feature of the trip.

Games of various sorts were indulged in, together with vocal and instrumental music and light refreshments were served. The young people were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Rucker, Mr. and Mrs. Roseworth and Mr. and Mrs. Oswald.

The members of the company were loathe to tear themselves away from the happy scene and it was the "wee sma' hours" before they reached their homes.

Trip to Santiago Peak

Rev. J. A. Stevenson and his sons, Donald and James, left this morning for a trip to Santiago peak, or Saddleback, as it is commonly called. James rode a burro all the way up the mountain and only fell off once.

Mr. Stevenson telephoned his wife at noon from the lookout station, saying that they had arrived safely. They will return tomorrow.

Laguna Beach Party

Mrs. Bessie Lambdon and her daughter enjoyed a trip to Laguna Beach yesterday with a party of Pomona friends, who motored down to the seashore and enjoyed a sumptuous picnic dinner at Abalone Beach. There were twenty in the party.

PLEASANT OUTING

Junior Teacher Training Class Spends Week At Long Beach

The members of the Junior Teachers' Class of the First Presbyterian Church have returned from a pleasant week's outing at Long Beach. The girls were accompanied by their teachers, Mrs. W. A. Nord.

The party enjoyed the usual good beach times, including wienie bakes, bathing and trips on the pike. Besides Mrs. Nord, those who enjoyed the week were Misses Irene Swanner, Eva Toland, Dorothy Thacker, Florence, Lucille and Quessie Miller.

Young Campaigners Regiment

(By Julia A. Garrison) Who are these boys and girls so neat Marching proudly along the street? With caps and pennants, and flags unfurled, And banners proclaiming to all the world—

"California Dry," California Dry," "To Save the Boys and Girls Please Try," "Boys or Breweries—Which?" "Girls or Wine?" "The Coming Rulers." See Us Shine."

With bugle and drum and rally song And campaign "yells" they march along; A moving picture of beauty and grace And tender appeal in each youthful face.

Fathers and mothers, well you know, When out from their homes these children go, That the city's streets are full of snares, To trap their young feet unawares.

And the tempter of souls in the ruly cup, Is waiting to pick your darling up, And start his feet on the downward track, From which only God can bring him back.

And the crafty white slaver awaits the girl Who drinks in the cafe's greedy swirl With the man she had never known before Until they met on the dance hall floor.

Oh, the pity and shame, that such as these, With light young hearts and forms that please, Must go to the shambles of sin and pain, Through the demon of drink and lust of gain.

For the toll exacted is great indeed To satisfy such a monster's greed. One boy in nine, one girl in seven from the homes of our land are yearly given.

Whose boy will be next? What mother can spare A beautiful girl for the demon's lair? For the drunkard's grave, and the potter's field, How many have boys and girls to yield?

What—NONE, do you say? Then get to work, And not for one moment falter or shrink; For God's handwriting is on the wall— "You are weighed in the balance and guilty all."

Change of Meeting Date

Owing to unavoidable circumstances the regular meeting of the Belle Rogers W. C. T. U. will be held on Wednesday afternoon instead of Tuesday of this week.

Children who belong to Company A of the First Regiment of Orange County Young Campaigners, will please remember the change of date and be on hand promptly at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the Armory hall on Birch street, near Fourth street.

Remember to bring your young friends with you as we want to have two companies instead of one in the regiment, and you can do it, boys and girls, if you try. Every boy who brings seven other boys will be made corporal of that squad, and the same with girls. Get busy girls and form your own squads of your own chums and see what good soldiers you can be in our war of ballots instead of bullets.

Missionary Meeting

The mite box opening will be a feature of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Auxiliary meeting which will be held in the First M. E. Church Wednesday afternoon at 2:30. All interested in missions are invited.

Sorrows of a Comedian

By JOHN BARRYMORE

SO much has been written by really clever pen-wielders concerning the breaking heart of the clown as he cavorted before the laughter-shaken audience—a la "Pagliacci"—that it were best to explain that this is not going to be a tearful lamentation, but a grouch. It is a protest against the iniquities of this world which give a perverted sense of humor to the public whereby it professes to see something funny in the physical anguish of a fellow mortal.

Why should you and your friends sit comfortably in a motion picture theatre and laugh with glee when a photoplayer is seen to fall overboard into icy water? Why is the human mind so constituted that it gloats over the sight of a man being maltreated and generally bruised, the degree of mirth being in proportion to the amount of anguish experienced by the victim?

Probably we shall never know, so we can but record the fact and marvel at the enigma. I shall never forget a fight in "The Dictator," a Famous Players production for Paramount Pictures, in which I played. My valet and I were to attack a taxicab chauffeur, and, in the midst of a fight, we were to fall off the dock into the East River. When we came to that part of the struggle and actually took the plunge our Satanic director danced up and down on the dock with glee.

"They'll die laughing at that," he shouted, as we floundered around in the water. "That was great stuff. I thought you had knocked him out, Jack." From which it seems only logical to infer that if we had both been killed outright our epitaph would have been a deafening shout of laughter, raising the roof of every picture theatre in the country—a pretty thought, is it not?

MEXICAN PAYS $60 FINE FOR CARRYING PISTOL

Sixty dollars for carrying a $10 or $12 revolver was the fine handed Antonio Molina by Col. Headman in the city recorder's court this morning.

Molina was arrested yesterday by Motor Cop Cook for carrying concealed weapons.

The stiff sentence imposed by the City Recorder is the result of the policy of the courts and officers to put a stop to the practice of the Mexican population of carrying concealed weapons. Severe sentences have been imposed in many cases where Mexicans have been arrested for this offense.

Molina is employed by Hogaland, a beet raiser in the Smelter section. He had no money to pay his fine and gave an order on his employer for the amount. Cook accompanied Molina to Smelter and collected the money.

CHURCH AT ARTESIA

ARTESIA, Aug. 14.—The official board of the M. E. church held a business meeting at the parsonage Tuesday evening, August 8. The committee on a new church building reported encouraging progress. Plans have been drawn and adopted, a reliable estimate of cost has been secured and one-third of the necessary amount has been subscribed. The question of proceeding at once or waiting until later will probably be decided at the quarterly conference, which meets September 7.

ORANGE GROVE SOLD

ORANGE, Aug. 14.—Charles F. Talmadge, of North Glassell street, has purchased a ten-acre orange grove on East Collins avenue from John B. Anderson, of Long Beach, the deal being closed through the agency of the Henry Schaffert Realty Company. Though no figures are stated it is understood that the ranch brought a fancy cash price. It is set to Valencia.

PERMIT FOR BUILDING

ORANGE, Aug. 14.—Saturday Arthur Shipke took out a building permit for a double flat building on North Lemon street near Maple avenue, and the construction work will commence at once. The building will be a one-story frame structure, modern in plan and strictly up to the minute in appointment and furnishings. It will cost approximately $1800.

GROVE BRINGS $35,000

FULLERTON, Aug. 14.—One of the most important realty deals this season is the purchase by Dr. Frank C. Campbell, a Los Angeles dentist, of a 20-acre orange grove in the Placentia district, from Elmer Thompson, the owner. The consideration involved was $35,000. An attractive villa adorns the property, and Dr. Campbell will move his family there to live. The grove is planted in late Valencia.

S. A. MAN, JOKE VICTIM AT LONG BEACH, HAS HIS ARM FRACTURED

CITRUS FRUITS BRING IN $10,000 A DAY

FULLERTON, Aug. 14.—Spelling prosperity to the citrus growers, receipts from orange and lemon sales are pouring into the northern part of the county at the rate of $10,000 daily. And this great influx of gold will continue for the next thirty days, according to E. K. Benchley, president of the Farmers and Merchants' National Bank.

Oranges are bringing unusually high prices and the returns from a single car range from $1000 to $1500. The returns from lemon shipments are even greater, a single car bringing between $1500 and $2000.

WILDCAT WELL IS NOT GIVING ENCOURAGEMENT

ANAHEIM, Aug. 14.—The Yorba wildcat well continues to pump water with traces of oil, at a depth of 3435 feet. Before the well was placed on the pump the tools passed through 100 feet of sand that looked promising, and the small showing of oil is somewhat disappointing. However, the theory is advanced that possibly the water has not been successfully shut off, and is preventing the well from making a better showing.

SUPPORTED BY GOOD CAST

An exceedingly good cast of players supports Donald Brian in the Paramount picture, "The Smugglers," which is one of the funniest comedies ever seen on the screen. Among them are Olive Tell, Cyril Chadwick, Margaret Greene, Harold Vosburg and Rita Bori.

Sessue Hayakawa, the Lasky star in Paramount pictures, is delighted with the story of "The Honorable Friend," not only for its value from a dramatic standpoint, but from the fact that it has three fights in it; one of them between himself and some of his fellow countrymen being fought entirely jiu-jitsu. During the taking of these scenes the air was filled with flying Nipponese and many of the tricks of this clever method of combat were displayed.

MODEL FLEES AS S. F. POLICE NAB MEXICAN PAINTER OF 'REFUGEE'

SAN FRANCISCO.—The masterpiece of Jos. Arenas, Mexican painter, may never appear in any art shop. For "The Refugee" hangs unfinished and the model is probably too frightened to appear. Arenas was walking near the waterfront with his model, talking over water scenes. In the hip pocket of the painter was a revolver, which he declares was to be used by the model in posing as a Mexican refugee. Trouble among strikers arose and Arenas was taken as a suspect. He related the circumstances to Police Judge Sullivan and introduced a portion of the painting. He said his model had fled. The judge turned him loose.

MAN LEAVES FORTUNE TO COMBATTING CANCER

NEW YORK.—His body bequeathed to science, his fortune to founding a cancer hospital, Frank B. Lowndes, 19 Wallace avenue, Mount Vernon, is dead, a suicide by gas.

A letter found by Coroner Healy told of his fight against the disease. It read in part:

"I, Frank B. Lowndes, finding that my life is a burden and that all places are closed to my dread disease, which they call cancer, and that I might be some good to the medical profession, leave my body to the above, if it will be of interest in advancing the cause. "I would like the home named St. Francis Home for Incurables and to be free for those who cannot pay. Would that some kind sister take charge. Mrs. Charles Dana Gibson would be my choice as a noble person to take charge. Have same started, as it is a noble and good cause. Of course, what I leave is only a foundation. I am sorry to leave life in this manner, but it has so preyed upon my mind that there seems no other way."

FUMES OVERCOME ACTRESS

It was while she was dashing through the burning village, one of the big scenes in the production, that she was overcome by the fumes of the sulphur and slipped unconscious from her horse. In the dark the other horsemen were about to ride over her, when she was spied by one of the cowboys, who threw himself in the way. She never remembered anything that happened from the time she struck the smoke until she found herself being revived.

that he would give us some old-time soup. John said that he did not know how they would like it, but the way it disappeared told John that he need not be afraid to make it again because that vegetable soup was extremely good.

Bill Rittner says he can now see how to write because he is writing by electricity instead of candle power, since the Y. M. C. A. for enlisted men has opened.

Quartermaster Christensen has gone into the post card business. He makes them himself. Ole is going to have a good job if he shows them to many of the boys.

I don't know just what the Josh is, but every time Private Dahl steps out of his tent some one calls to him, "Oh, Dahl, got your side arms on?"

Privates Archie Jones and Earl King have made application to be enrolled among the mounted scouts. We hope that they have good luck.

Corporal Worthy is going around with a new name tacked on to him. He is now going under the name of the Incinerator Corporal. He worked on the incinerator.

Private Lammie while blotting his letter at the Y. M. C. A. forgot that he was not in camp and began to pound around to be sure that his letter would be blotted, until he was reminded of the fact by a good many of the men at the table with him that he was not in his own squad tent.

There was a big stack of mail came in yesterday for the Tustin boys, of whom there are seventeen in Company L. When the mail was opened it was found that one of the churches of Tustin had sent them each a small Bible. The Tustin boys send thanks through the Register for the Bibles.

We are on guard duty. We are getting so we like it. It seems that it never rains when Company L goes on guard duty.

The cook gave us some bean soup for supper and the way the men went after it wasn't slow, because they kept going back after seconds and thirds.

We were cheated out of our morning exercise this morning. Although we did start we did not get very far before it began to rain. Lieutenant Ford gave us the order to halt, about face and get back to camp. It's a good thing we did not have to go very far or we probably would have had a little wetting.

Private Bill Graves got another little shipment of oranges and lemons today and the men ate oranges on Bill.

The boys are beginning to die out since the Y. M. C. A. has opened the facilities for writing and the movies are what attracts a good many of the men. They have a splendid building all wired for electricity.

Sergeant Christensen is having a good time keeping his lantern lighted tonight. It goes out after electric light fashion, so the Quarter Master has to keep a good supply of matches around.

Mrs. W. A. Davidson, whose husband is a member of Company L, and her friend, Miss Alameda Fuller, came into Nogales yesterday to stay until the boys return home. Miss Fuller will make a brief visit here and then will go to Tucson to visit with relatives.

Today was regimental parade and review before Adjutant General Thomas of the California National Guard. It was a pretty sight to witness from a distance. It was said to have been the prettiest parade held since we have been in camp. General Thomas complimented the men of the Seventh on their neat appearance and the correctness of their alignments.

Private Kubitz has been dubbed the "buggy private" on account of the numerous insects that he has collected. He has several good specimens, the best one being a large centipede which he has mounted. The bugologist says that he is going to forward them to Santa Ana so that the people can see them. They don't bother us any. Kubitz goes looking for them. They scamper when they see him coming.

PRIVATE F. H. MITCHELL.

AWAITING WORD OF TIME SET FOR HEARING

Copy of Bordwell Mandamus Petition Is Received By District Attorney

This afternoon District Attorney L. A. West and County Clerk W. B. Williams are awaiting word as to what time they will have to appear in the supreme court at San Francisco in response to the action brought by Walter Bordwell against Williams in an effort to compel him to leave Bordwell's name off of the Republican ballot to be used at the primaries on August 29.

This morning a copy of the petition that Bordwell is today filing in the supreme court was received here. Telephone messages also brought additional statements that the mandamus action would be begun today.

Rather than put the county to the expense of a trip to San Francisco for himself and the county clerk, District Attorney West today telephoned to Attorney General Webb and asked him to appear for Williams. Webb doubted the advisability of that procedure, saying that he was of the opinion that it would be best for West and Williams to be present. He said that as soon as the case is set, he would notify West.

In the action Bordwell appears as plaintiff. It sets forth the fact that Bordwell was a candidate for the Republican nomination for United States senator, but withdrew, notifying the secretary of state and every county clerk in the state to keep his name off the ballot. Bordwell alleges that it is his desire that the nomination go to one who is registered as a Republican. He asserts that that is one reason for passing the action for immediate decision by the supreme court. It is further stated that the action is meant as a test case for the guidance of county clerks all over the state.

Contest Threatened

Contested divorce cases in this county are few and far between. In a majority of the cases, the defendant fails to appear and judgment is given upon the testimony of the plaintiff's witnesses. Today an answer was filed that indicates a contest. The divorce action was brought by W. T. Long against Jennie Maud Long. The answer denies cruelty alleged by the plaintiff. It states that the defendant is a cook at the Copra de Ora Oil Company camp near Brea, and that she has received no financial assistance from her husband, who is alleged in the complaint to be able to earn $90 a month but does not do so because he is unwilling to work steadily.

Fighting Insurance

On the ground that F. H. Hamilton set fire to the building at 251 North Orange Grove avenue, Pasadena, in order to get the insurance, the Scottish Universal & National Insurance Co. has filed an answer here to the action brought to collect $2500 insurance on furniture in the place. The company asks that the case be transferred to Los Angeles county, where suits for insurance totaling $20,000 are pending.

In asking the removal of the case, Attorney Hindman for the company gives the names of witnesses it will call. Among them is a jitney driver who unloaded forty gallons of gasoline at the house for Hamilton, and carried away a load of books for Hamilton just a few hours before the fire.

Trial Aug. 22

The plaintiff in the action to adjudicate an alleged trust brought by Clara Young and Mary M. Buchanan against their step-mother, Mrs. Mary P. Matthews, involving title to a valuable walnut grove on East Fourth street, has demanded a jury trial. The case will be tried on Aug. 22.

Demurrer Filed

Attorneys West, Koepsel & Eden have filed a demurrer in the suit brought against Jacob Mueller by the Santiago Orange Growers Association for $500, alleged to be due the association because Mueller sold oranges outside the association, to which he belonged.

For Foreclosure

C. H. Leech has brought suit to foreclose a $700 mortgage against W. J. Holland, L. A. Cronk of Huntington Beach is attorney for the plaintiff. The property concerned is in block 522, Huntington Beach.

Names Appraisers

J. N. Anderson, Santa Ana; B. Duffy, Fullerton, and G. C. Kinsman, Yorba Linda, have been appointed to appraise the estate of Roy D. Bosworth.

IN THE JUSTICE COURT

CARELESS DRIVING, ARRESTS ARE ASKED

Two complaints alleging careless driving were sworn to today. Theodore Watry of Santa Ana told Deputy District Attorney Koepsel that as he was coming home from Laguna Beach a small Ford car started to pass him, and came so close that the front wheels of the two machines locked. Watry's machine swung off the road, and the two machines parted. Watry's machine ran seventy-five feet into a bean field, and the Ford was close beside it. Watry got the number of the offender.

Ignacio Perez of San Juan Capistrano said that a machine driven by N. L. Weaver of Glendale struck Perez's buggy near the mission town and wrecked it.

Fined for Speeding

Fred Powers paid a fine of $20 for speeding forty miles an hour.

REV. M'CORT COMING TO L. A. IS REPORTED

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 14.—Dispatches from Philadelphia last night quoted the Rt. Rev. J. J. McCort, auxiliary bishop of Philadelphia, as saying to the parishoners of the Church of Our Mother of Sorrows during mass yesterday: "It seems that I must go. Pray for me."

The news was interpreted by some in Philadelphia as indicating that he is coming to Los Angeles to succeed the late Bishop Conaty. In response last night to inquiries for specific confirmation of this interpretation, however, Bishop McCort declared that he had no information whatever as to his coming to Los Angeles.

33,857 OFFICERS LOST

LONDON, Aug. 14.—Officers' casualty lists continue to show the severity of the fighting on the western front. The losses for one week—July 16 to 23—were 528 killed, 1070 wounded and 201 missing, a total of 1799. Since the beginning of the war the British army has lost 10,105 officers killed and 21,290 wounded and 2462 missing.

cident near Westminster last night.

None was seriously hurt but all were shaken up and badly bruised, and further delay in filming the movie will be occasioned.

The movie actors were returning from Seal Beach about midnight in a seven-passenger Pierce Arrow.

They were injured when their car went bounding through the air and in to a drainage ditch on East Seventeenth street, just east of where the improved highway through Westminster intersects with the Garden Grove-Huntington Beach improved highway. It was the result of an attempt to avoid colliding with a Ford going in the opposite direction.

Driver Kennedy of the wrecked machine supposed the driver of the other car intended to make the turn at the intersection, and when he discovered that he had erred in his judgment, he cut to the side of the road, and the high powered machine went gliding across the paved highway to the soft dirt road on Seventeenth street and turned over in the ditch. It is said the car leaped fifteen or twenty feet, turning a complete somersault and landing upside down.

Williams was thrown through the windshield and suffered cuts on one wrist and one leg. Driver Kennedy is believed to be the most seriously injured. It was thought last night that several bones had been broken, but this morning one attending physician stated that no bones had been broken. Others of the party were bruised and shaken up.

The party included Director Harry Williams and wife, Director C. D. Avery, Cameraman Oliver Marsh, Chester Conklin and wife and Driver Kennedy. All are now at Balboa.

The company is producing a two-reel marine picture, featuring Chester Conklin. Three weeks have already been devoted to the picture and the movie people are now hoping the jinx will lay off long enough for them to write films on the production within the next two or three weeks.

Crowded Off Road and Pursued By Offender

Crowded off the boulevard and followed into the field by the offending car was the experience of Theo. Watry yesterday afternoon on his return from Laguna Beach. Many drivers have had the experience of being forced off the highway, but none have probably had the experience Watry had. Watry thinks it is bad enough to have to give up the road, but it is still worse to have to take further chance on damage and injury by having the crowding car pursue one into a field.

Watry was returning to Santa Ana, and was bowling along on the canyon road at a moderate rate of speed when the other car came up behind him and tried to pass. The front left wheel of his car was struck by the right front wheel of the other car. He turned into the field and brought his car to a stop in a bean field. When he got his car stopped he was much surprised to find the other machine in his rear. The driver of the offending machine gave him name, but Watry has forgotten it. He has the number, however, and expects to file a complaint.

Officers Thought They "Had One" On Lawyer

Attorney R. Y. Williams is not guilty.

When S. E. Tingley of Tustin phoned to the city hall last night that the driver of car with license No. 29596 had cut in ahead of him yesterday on Fifth street, the local police looked up the number and found it registered under the name of R. Y. Williams. Tingley stated that he would file a complaint some time today and it looked to the police that the popular attorney would have to appear and defend himself in court.

When Williams was seen this morning, he cleared the atmosphere, so far as it concerned him. He had sold the machine only a few days ago to Ed. Stanley of Villa Park, who has charge of an orange ranch belonging to R. Y. and W. B. Williams.

Tingley had not sworn to a complaint up to the middle of the afternoon.

Motorcyclist Has Leg Fractured In Crash

A motorcycle ridden by E. C. Gordon of Los Angeles crashed into a machine driven by John H. Edwards of 1002 Ross street, Santa Ana, yesterday. Edwards was making a turn on to the Seal Beach boulevard west of Westminster when the motorcycle, which was going too fast to be stopped in time to avoid the smash, ran into the automobile. Edwards took the motorcycle, who had a leg broken, to a hospital at Long Beach. The automobile was damaged slightly.

CAL. SETTLERS AWAIT ACTION OF SENATE ON 'LIEU LANDS' BILL

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 14.—Now that the House of Representatives has acted favorably on their cause, for which Surveyor W. S. Kingsbury is personally putting up a fight at Washington, D. C., the 2100 astute applicants and settlers of land in California who would be benefited to the extent of many thousands of dollars by the passage of House Bill 15,096, are today anxiously awaiting the senators' action.

This bill involves 320,000 acres of land, known as "lieu land." They are selected by the state for the benefit of 2100 in lieu of school lands to which the state could not give title because the school lands had been closed to sale or settlement for various reasons.

Some of the settlers have waited more than twenty years for titles to their lands. If the bill "goes through" the 2100 applicants will get patents from the state after the land is listed in California.

Surveyor General Kingsbury will remain in Washington until he has secured the conveyance of the land from the United States to the state of California.

The 320,000 acres involved in this legislation will average from $5 to $20 an acre in value, and after the state and its transferees get title the land will be subjected to local taxation.

These lieu lands are situated in forty-eight different counties of the state.

Kingsbury wires from Washington to his office in the state capital that he is confident the Senate will act favorably on the bill.

MRS. FRANK PAIGE DIES OF INFANT PARALYSIS

NEW YORK, Aug. 14.—Mrs. Frank Copeland Page, daughter-in-law of Walter Hines Page, ambassador to Great Britain, died Saturday afternoon at her home in South Garden City, L. I., of infantile paralysis.

Mrs. Page, who was a bride of two months, was 22 years old. She was a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Frederick Sefton of Auburn. She was stricken Friday. As soon as her condition became serious Ambassador and Mrs. Page removed to the Garden City Hotel so that they might be near their daughter-in-law.

Mrs. Page was married to Frank Copeland Page in Auburn on June 3 last. They had been friends since 1911, when they were introduced at a dinner given in Auburn by Charles Davonne Osborne, a son of Thomas Mott Osborne and a college mate of Mr. Page.

TUSTIN TEAM GOES TO 2 TO 0 DEFEAT

The fast Grohman & Coe baseball team defeated the Tustin nine 2 to 0 yesterday on the losers' diamond. Big Bill Hurst was in rare form and kept the four hits gathered off him well scattered. Carter Elliott, who was given a tryout with Oakland, played short for the Grohman & Coe nine, making three hits and figuring in five double plays. The game was played in 1 hour and 5 minutes, which is exceptionally fast time.

The score: R. H. E.
Grohman & Coe 2 6 1
Tustin 0 4 0

PHELAN FORCES FIGHT

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—Senator Phelan made a determined fight in the senate caucus last night to restore the house provisions on the wine schedule. A motion to adopt the committee's report, which increases the brandy from 10 to 55 cents a gallon, was lost on a tie vote. There was no quorum, however, and the matter will be reopened tonight, when Senator Phelan will move to restore the house provisions. He has a hard fight before him, but hopes to win.

ENGLAND AGAIN RAIDED

LONDON, Aug. 14.—An air raid on the British naval port of Dover by two German seaplanes occurred Saturday afternoon. An official statement says four bombs were dropped, one officer and six men being slightly injured, but little material damage being done.

DANGERS OF A COLD

Santa Ana People Will Do Well to Heed Them

Many bad cases of kidney trouble result from a cold or chill. Congested kidneys fall behind in filtering the poison-laden blood and backache, headache, dizziness and disordered kidney action follow. Don't neglect a cold. Use Doan's Kidney Pills at the first sign of kidney trouble. Follow this Santa Ana resident's example:

Mrs. D. S. Reeves, 1046 W. Second St., Santa Ana, says: "I caught cold which settled on my kidneys last spring and it brought on an attack of backache. I had a constant lame back and the pains were more severe when I stooped or lifted. I was tired out and did not have any ambition. I suffered from severe pains in the back of my head and dizzy spells and everything seemed in a blur. Three boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from the White Cross Drug Co. removed the trouble."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Reeves had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Edges Smooth and Strong

A KEEN KUTTER Pocket Knife will take an edge smooth and fine enough to cut paper, and strong and lasting enough to work in hickory.

The reason is that the makers select the material as carefully, and devote as much attention to pocket knives as to the finest saw or chisel.

The adjustments are made by specialists and rigid tests prove their worth before they are allowed to leave the factory as

BULLETS FLY, AND AN OFFICER AND A MEXICAN DIE

CHINO, Aug. 14.—C. W. Keller, who owned a furniture store here and was also night watchman, was killed about 2 o'clock yesterday morning by a Mexican, Ramon Soto. He died three hours after being shot through the stomach in a revolver duel. Soto died at the County Hospital at San Bernardino last night. He was wounded with a bullet through the thigh, another through the back and lung, and a wound in the leg.

Keller heard a disturbance in the Mexican quarter and on investigation found five Mexicans sitting under a tree, singing boisterously. The officer remonstrated and Soto jumped up and began firing his revolver at Keller. The latter returned the fire.

At the fourth shot from the Mexican, Keller fell after firing three times. Harry Stark, who was with Keller, eased the officer to the ground and then seized the smoking revolver and fired the three remaining shots at Soto, who meanwhile was running away.

Soto was found hiding in a chicken coop one mile southwest of town, suffering from his wounds.

Keller was a giant, weighing over 200 pounds and standing taller than 6 ft. 2 in. He was formerly an officer at Lemore, Tulare and Coalinga, in the San Joaquin country. He had been watchman here only six weeks.

Inquiry coming here today from Santa Ana as to whether or not Keller was a former resident of this section and a brother of Fred Keller of Santa Ana brought out the information that Keller had no brothers in this state. He came from Kentucky.

THIEVES TAKE AWAY CLOTHING, LEAVE THE JEWELRY

Yesterday the residence of W. M. Wellman, corner of Center street and Placencia avenue, Anaheim, was entered by burglars. The thieves had no desire for jewelry, for they took none though it lay in plain sight. They carried away several suits of men's clothes, several dresses, some cloth, a hat, a kodak, a grip and some other articles. The burglary occurred yesterday while the Wellman family was attending camp meeting at Huntington Beach.
